Upcoming Webinar - NIGMS Postdoctoral Research Associate Training Program - 7/14 at 2 PM ET

The webinar will be of interest to participants or alumni of your T32 program who have an interest in pursuing postdoctoral research at the NIH, especially graduate students likely to defend in the next year, or recent Ph.D. graduates. The PRAT Program is especially interested in ensuring the applicant pool reflects the diversity of the biomedical Ph.D. talent pool, and I am requesting your help in identifying potential candidates.

Webinar information: The webinar will be on Tuesday, July 14, 2:00- 3:00 p.m. Eastern Time. To access the webinar, visit the WebEx meeting page and enter the meeting number (access code) 126 419 4975 and the password PRAT. You can also attend by phone by calling 1-650-479-3208 and entering the meeting number. Slides will be posted on the NIGMS PRAT Program website following the webinar.

More information can be found here: <https://loop.nigms.nih.gov/2020/06/webinar-for-postdoctoral-research-associate-training-prat-program-applicants-3/>

Experiences of Black STEM in the Ivory: A Call to Disruptive Action

You're invited to "Experiences of Black STEM in the Ivory: A Call to Disruptive Action"
July 14-15

This two-day event will bring together students, staff, faculty and leadership from academic institutions across the country to share their unique perspectives on the current barriers facing Black scholars in STEM fields with the goal of inspiring and challenging participants to take action to address racial inequity in STEM.

Participating institutions include the University of Washington, University of Chicago, Georgia Tech, the University of Texas at Austin, and Boston University.

REACT virtual instrumentation seminar series For The General User

Next Presentation Topic: Glove Boxes
Presented by: Nathan La Porte (GIANTFab)
Tuesday, July 14th, 1pm-3pm (Central Time)

Please register at: <https://northwestern.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJYvdOqurjovHdx5FbCKKivF4gxDnEt6X4CI>

Conducting scientific research requires the use of a vast array of instrumentation and tools. Even though we can't all be experts with every tool we use, safe and effective use of instrumentation requires practical knowledge about basic instrument components and standard experimental procedures. This weekly series will draw on the expertise of core facility experts to provide you with practical information and valuable resources about using some of the most common tools in materials and chemistry research, with a special emphasis on fluid systems.
